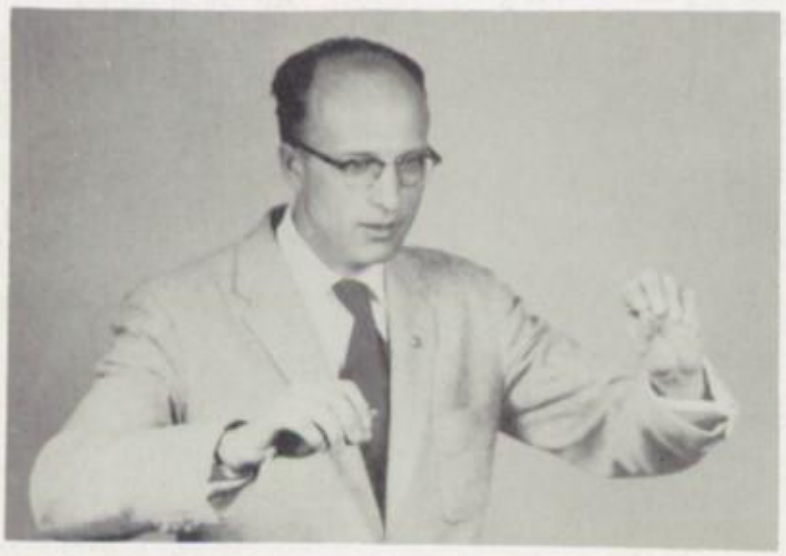
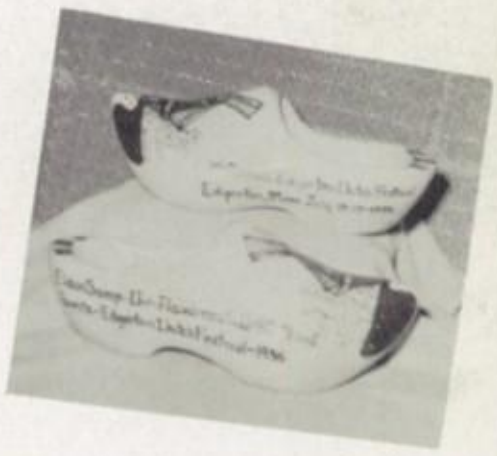
'57 Flyer is Dedicated to ELDON SAMP

Flandreau High School Band Director





Eldon Samp was chosen "Outstanding Band Director of South Dakota for 1956" by the Kappa Kappa Psi, honorary band fraternity from the University of South Dakota. This only restated common knowledge of the Flandreau people, as they know him as a man who does a superb job of guiding some two hundred youngsters into the appreciation of music each year.

He is a member of the American School Board Directors Association and is secretary and treasurer for South Dakota's Band Master's group. The Flandreau Future Farmer boys made him an honorary chapter farmer in 1956.

Under Samps direction the A band brought home the A school American Legion marching trophy from the Legion Convention. They won the giant Pow Wow day trophy from Huron College last fall. The B band received recognition at Edgerton's Dutch Festival.

Judean Snuggerud, Muriel Duncan, and Nancy Critser who brought home the twirling honors display the trophy that the band received at Luverne last fall.

This fancy vehicle for transportation has given many a student added pleasures as they worked moving band equipment. Even Mr. Samp enjoys bombing around in the limousine.

The Annual Staff wishes to dedicate the '57 Flyer to Eldno Samp, director of the band and friend to all at Flandreau High.

With this dedication in mind a musical theme will be used throughout the book.

ACCIDENTAL Scenes from Senior Life

Marlee Maxwell finishes a day's work!!! Which is the weaker--male or female? Janet Jewett and Barbara Russie smile as the nurse gives the polio shot to them BUT look at Howard Stimson. Lynnwood Hager dances first with Bernie Bowen and then Jim McGlone. There must be a girl shortage, uh? Notice Mr. Prochaska getting that rock'n roll beat too. Pat gets shot while shooting pictures for Little Orpheum.

Six packs of bubble gum didn't even hold Jim McGlone down. Bernie Bowen takes time out at a school party for food, but Doug Van Whye keeps right on whirling. Wilma Gitchel, under the ten gallon hat, Lois Keehn, and Jim McGlone as the Oakley Kids.

A stray junior, Fred Smith, stands beside Dick Thompson as they try to hitch a ride--guess the boys can not trust their luck to just the foot. Happy Royality--

Seniors HARMONIZE on Homecoming

Seniors win second place with Lick the Arrows. The goal posts are being held up by Janet Jewett and Barbara Russie.

Lynwood Hager, master of ceremony for Little Orpheum, can be seen wearing whiskers as he tries to sell the Single Blessedness Debating Society on the Remodelscope. It was a machine to make all old maids beau iful. Jerome Neal, who stands behind the mike, brought the show to a stand still as he sang "Honky Tonk Man."

ACCIDENTALS Belong to the Juniors Too.

Pop! Cold pop! John Phelan and Mike Lovejoy selling at games to help meet prom expenses. With faces aglow the juniors sing??? Lynnwood Hager and Mr. Hass renovate toys with the help of John Phelan.

Lucky to be alive, Lonnie Thielson takes time out to enjoy life. Kenny Stimson, senior, chats with Denny Driscoll during the 4:00 student lunch hours. Fie, my boy, fie! A junior and afraid? . . . Roger Hurley floats down stream on a chunk of ice.

The Agriculture boys won but the girls all attended the smorgasbord dinner at the Cottage in Sioux Falls. Dorothy Wade, Doris Kucera, Mary Ann Fuller, Marlys Eng, and Janelle Erickson wait eagerly for food. It seems that Betty Lietske, Linda Miller, Supt. Johnson, Sylvan Vigness, and Virginia Larson were there too. (A few Ag boys made it too.)

A NATURAL—Juniors and Success

Class representative and vice president, Janice Gullickson and Marlys Eng, watch Dorothy Wade, treasurer, and Dick Grafing, president, plan for the spring banquet. Ken Headrick takes notes.

With the theme, Break the Arrows, the Juniors walked off with top parade honors.

The fifty-eighters entertained the Little Orpheum crowd with a pantomime, The Lowly Milkman. John Phelan, Nina Sue Peterson, Barbara Nelson, Dick Heesch, DeAnn Ellingson, and Marlene Ehret acted out the parts.

Miss Larson and Mr. Vigness admire the plaque which was awarded Flandreau by the Curtis Company for its outstanding and highest salesmanship record for this region. Co-captains Dorothy Wade and Marlys Eng are also proud of the school's achievement.

PASSING NOTES on the Sophomores

Three little maids from school are we- Kay Keck, Kathy Dawson, and Noreen. (Johnson, that is.)

It's that cup that Kathy Collins won at the speech contest.

Mr. Rollins had just given these students individual awards for their work in a speech contest. The sophomores - Kathy Collins, Richard Whitman, and Tom Johnson - seem to dominate the picture. Senior, Kent Miller, and junior, Roger Thoreson, helped to make this a winning team.

"Now let me see," says Tom Johnson, "Which pretty maid will it be?"
It's just another windy South Dakota day, so Dottie Schult and Jean Englebrecht are going to cover (?) their hair before going to lunch.
These business looking young fellows were judging. . .It was hogs this time. Horseman, Dale Bisson, strikes a thoughtful pose for the cameraman.

Lawrence Hill and Marvin Johnson are surprised as they thought the camera was taking someone elses picture. Leslie Taylor and Norman Hammer work on a plant box in shop. Dale Bisson and Alvin Gullickson start to screw the parts of Dale's gun rack together.

Sophomores Mark TIME

President Wayne Eastman reads the sundial as fellow officers stand by. Joe Biron, secretary; Noreen Johnson, treasurer; Richard Whitman, representative; and Dottie Schult, vice president, make up the executive board of this class.

Choosing "Hipping to Victory" as their theme and dressing Bruce Clark and Dean Biteler as Hawaiian dancers, the sophomores brought a south sea island scene into the homecoming parade. Darrell Pulscher furnished the music for the dancers.

Dottie Schult looks amused but is supposed to be afraid as husband, Claude Jones, points the finger of guilt at her old sweetheart, Richard Whitman, in a Little Orpheum skit.

Lynn Sorenson gets his wallet out to give Noreen Johnson a few pennies for the good of the cause in a skit for Little Orpheum. Loye Johnson doesn't seem at all interested so she walks away.

"Freshies" are FULL of Ambition.

"Freshies" dress the fanciest for the "Sok" hop. Junior, Jim Weigel, sits with Charles Prochaska while senior, Kathy Henderson poses with Judy Weigel. These were girl and boy winners for having worn the best decorated socks at the partv.

Karla Miller studies grains in the Ag room as she waits to catch a farmer.

Bob Burns was shot before he had a chance to shoot. Ah---here is the farmer for whom she's looking. It is Tommy Peper. Ag boys--Richard Nass, Kenny Leuning, Bob Erickson, Ronald Green and Lyle Lowe--watch with Mr. Vigness as the president brings the meeting together. Karen McConnel gets a piggie-back ride from Karla Miller. What fun!

Judean Snuggerud does the rock 'n roll with Donna Westra--John Vanderhoof looks on in amazement. Sneaking a look at the photographer is Jim Peper as he and Bob Erickson study weed species. Smile pretty like and say prunes were the instructions that Ron Van Buren and Jerry Johnson had as they turned to face the surprise attack of the photographer.

"Freshies" will REPEAT these Activities

Class officers leave after a busy day at school. Judy Weigel, student council; Jerry Johnson, treasurer; Karla Miller, secretary; Judean Snuggerud, vice president; and president Chuck Rewalt seem to be taking homework with them.

Karen Alberts, Judy Kroeger, Leona Gehlsen, and Betty Grafing scrub the deck as they ride on their homecoming float.

Connie Forman and Judy Wilch hold the screen as Charles Prochaska, the farmer; Judy Weigel, his daughter; Carter Wiese, the villain; and Chuck Rewalt, the constable, burlesque on the old plays-of-1900's. Here they chant with a rocking motion "He ain't done right by Little Nell". The "Freshies" presented this for Little Orpheum skit.

Charles Prochaska, Tommy Peper, Tony Kucera, Robert Erickson, Carter Wiese, Jerry Hiller, Bob Burns, Chuck Rewalt, John Vanderhoof, and David Gullickson prepare to play ball as referee, Roger Jackson, tosses the ball. Second ref. is Richard Nass. The fellows under freshmen coach, Ralph Cook, played some interesting games during the early part of the season.

Nationalist campaign managers, Kent Miller and Wilma Gitchel, hang one of the signs made by their party.---The Federalists painted cars as well as signs, Dick Thompson snapped this of his car shortly after the paint job. George Peper and Eunice Meyer help students Judy Prochaska and Marlee Maxwell register for voting. Mr. Rollins can be seen as he supervises the study hall.

American Legion government day proves to be a great success as government teacher, Don Brosz, guides the seniors through the campaign and election.

All students but seven registered. Only two of those registering did not vote, and of the votes cast only eight were disqualified.

ABOVE--Lois Keehn and Roger Lamp serve at the polls, as Kay Varns, Lynnwood Hager, Howard Stimson, and Douglas Van Wyhe vote.

Gerald Story, Don Jacobson, and Lynwood Hager learn of the highway patrolman's duties.

Wilma Gitchel, Gene Gullickson, Pat Keating, Richard Burns, Howard Stimson, Jan Price, Mel Jones, Marlee Maxwell, Marjorie Larson, Barbara Russie, Jim McGlone, Dick Thompson, and Kenneth Stimson are sworn into office by Legion service officer, Carl Miller. After this ceremony the student officers and classmates visited the county offices for a half day.

Judge Rice talks with Pat Keating, County Judge; JoAnn McMahon; Circuit Court Judge, Wilma Gitchel; and Dorothy Dierks.

The KEY to a Better Tomorrow . . .

Legion Student Government Day

1. William McDowell, acting County Coroner, discusses his duties with Kent Miller; Douglas Van Wyhe; Student Coroner, Barbara Russie; Jerome Neal; and Ellen Pottebaum. 2. Mrs. Opal Nass and Mrs. Hugh Stokes in the Clerk of Courts office show the books to Kathleen Henderson; Pat Whalen; Student Clerk of Courts, Marjorie Larson; and Janice Leuning. 3. Judy Prochaska; Marlene Meyer; Student Register of Deeds, Marlee Maxwell; Edith Green; and Karen Rosheim watch as Deputy Mrs. George Bommersbach explains the work of the Register of Deeds. 4. Student Treasurer, Rich Burns, stands close as County Treasurer, Art Richter, displays the tax books. Keith Amundson, Diane Krogman, Marilyn Willard, and Eunice Meyer look too. 5. County Auditor, Tillman Gulbranson; educates Roger Lamp, Student Auditor, Howard Stimson; Wayne Taylor; Janet Jewett; and Esther Erickson on his responsibilities. 6. Rolland Jones, States Attorney, instructs Student Attorney, Jan Price in the typing of warrants; George Peper and Lois Keehn look on. 7. Barbara Gageby; Barbara Thom; and Student Superintendent of Schools, Gene Gullickson, learn how to fill out forms from County Superintendent, Selma Severson. 8 & 9. County Commissioner, Gilbert Holter, with Student Commissioner, Dick Thompson; Jim Mc Glone; and Howard Stimson are watched by Bernie Bowen, Larry Larson, and Darrell Cloud. Below you see this same group of students during coffee break.

SPIRITED Pep Squad

Backs Boys

Five people who did a lot towards making the student body conscious of school spirit were Pat Whalen, Barbara Russie, Dick Grafing, Sharrol Jackson, and MarLee Maxwell.

Wearing the white sweaters the F Club purchased for them, the pepsters concluded the year by cheering the boys to a triumphal win over Rapid City in the State A Basketball Tournament.

TIE One-Drop One—REST Victorious

With Coach Eugene Johnson at the helm, the Flandreau Flyers were able to give the spectators many a nervous and heart throbbing moment. The season was indeed a victorious one.

FIRST ROW: Lloyd Duncan, Ronnie Green, LeRoy Benson, Wayne Eastman, Tom Johnson Bob Allen, Mel Jones, Pete Allen, Harold Kneebone, Pat Keating, Tom Price, Ronnie Earley, Dean Biteler, and Bob Emerson. Boys Recognized by State's Coaches

Pat Keating, half-back for the Flyers, is on the list of All-State minor eleven football first team for 1956. The Argus Leader reported "Pat in an exceptional runner and a very fine passer." Gene Gullickson, tackle, was selected for the second team; while Pete Allen, quarterback, was named to the honorable mention list. The boys are pictured at right as mentioned. Coach Johnson tops the list.

A Squad is Their Next STOP.

The B squad under Eugene Johnson's guiding hand and the "Freshies" under Ralph Cook's supervision stop practice long enough to smile at the photographer.

They PLAY for Fun.

Champions - Wayne Eastman, Richard Burns, Dene Gullickson, Douglas Van Wyhe, Lynnwood Hager, and Dick Grafing - pause for an intramural picture.

Bernie Bowen, John Phelan, Howard Stimson, Dick Thompson, Ronald Earley, and Jim McGlone played a hard game to come out second best in the intramurals.

Third place team is composed of: Roger Thoreson, James Suhr, Lloyd Erickson, Jerome Neal, and Donald Ehlers.
Pictures at right show the All-Stars and the Wolves battling for top place.
Intramural spirit and love for competition became quite evident as twenty-three fellows reported for practice. The captains-Dick Thompson, Jim McGlone, Douglas Van Wyhe, and Lynnwood Hager-lead their teams through five scrimmages before the Lettermen's Club chose the tournament teams.

Shoeless Larry Miller holds the ball that was used in their losing game. Bruce Clark, Ronald Suhr, Darrell Cloud, LaVerle Peterson, and Charles Prochaska appear to be a little weary after the tussle.

Happiness is THEME of the Tournament.

Tom Johnson, Dick Heesch, Wayne Taylor, and Kenny Headrick sit at ease in the dressing room before the big game against Belle Fouche.

State's record for a basketball pass is made by Wayne Taylor, senior member of the squad. He made a basket with a 60 foot pass.

Student manager Jim McGlone awaits the big moment with Jerry Thompson, Ronnie Zylstra, Fred Smith, Harold Kneebone, David McCracken, and Doug Johnson.

Harold Kneebone, David McCracken, Doug Johnson, Pat Keating, and Gene Gullickson listen as Coach Brosz lectures.

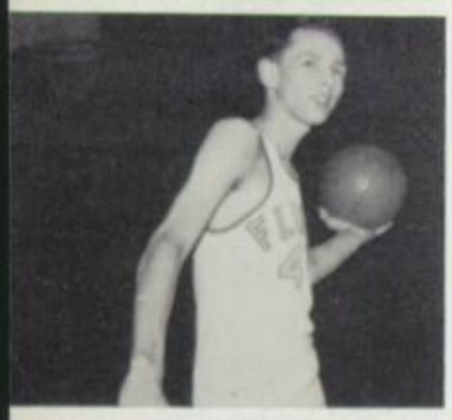
State A Tournament is



Border pictures display David McCracken, winner of All-State honorable mention which was the decision of the thirty-two A school coaches; and of an honorable mention on All Tournament squad which was picked by press and radio men. Douglas Johnson, Harold Kneebone, Jerry Thompson, and Fred Smith are followed by Gene Gullickson who was the team's choice for co-captain.

Right side border pictures include Pat Keating who was named co-captain of the Flandreau team and who received honorable mention as an All-Tournament squad member. Other team workers are Wayne Taylor, Dick Heesch, Ronnie Zylstra, Tom Johnson, and Kenny Headrick.

The FLIERS, plagued by defeat during the season, were able to edge by Brookings in the first round and to stun the Flandreau Indians to defeat in the second round of the Section II Tournament. By doing this the Fliers earned, for the first time since entering "A" competition, a berth in the State A Tournament.

Although the FLIERS fell to the Broncs (State A Champs) in the first game, they did not do so before giving them a jolt. Flandreau was then defeated by Watertown but came back to foil the Rapid City Cobblers and to win seventh place.

Congratulations goes to Coach Don Brosz who in his first year at Flandreau led the FLIERS to the State A Tournament.

MAJOR Interest of the Year.

An outstanding organization at Flandreau High School is the band under the direction of Elden Samp.

This group helped generate pep and enthusiasm at all home football and basketball games, played three concerts this year, and competed in marching contests which brought the Luverne and Huron College Pow Wow marching trophies to the school.

Six senior-high girls took turns being majorettes for the band.

Work and Pleasure

The Future Farmers of America is an organization in which students learn about crops and soils, farm shop, animal husbandry, farm management, farm mechanics, the feeding of livestock, and the marketing of livestock and crops. Each boy has a summer project to which this full measure of information is applied.

The FFA has for its purpose to teach cooperation, leadership, and citizenship.

Debate Groups Prepare to ATTACK

STANDING: Kathy Collins, Muriel Duncan, Leroy Bensen. SITTING: Kent Miller, Tom Johnson, Mr. Rollins, Roger Thorson, Richard Whitman.

Coach Paul Rollins' debate squad of affirmative speakers, Kent Miller and Tom Johnson; and negative speakers, Roger Thorson and Richard Whitman, were co-champion speakers at the division contest held in Madison. This qualified them for the state debate tournament which they lost to the state champs, Colman. Kathy Collins won first in the girl's extemporaneous divisional held at Madison, while Tom Johnson received a second in boy's extemporaneous in the division and third in the state.

The students worked in debates, extemporaneous speeches, discussion groups, and original oratory delivery at Sioux Falls, Watertown, Canton, Madison and Huron. Bonnie Bommersbach, Kathy Dawson, and Dick Grafing worked with the above group, too.

School Board and the Moody County Reorganization Board lunch together.

At left is a small portion of the trophy case. At right is the tallest one in school, Fred Smith. Big feet. Eh?

Classes CLOSE with a picnic

An unexpected guest at the freshmen picnic was "Mr. North Wind."

The juniors eat out.

The seniors have fun roughing-it.

Dress-up, Slop, and Skip Day INTERVALS

Slop Day: Richard Burns' back, Dick Thompson, Keith Amundson, George Peper, and Don Jacobson. Barbara Thom is the gal who looks so forlorn.

Pat Keating, Dick Thompson, Bob Otto, Bernie Bowen, Bob Otto, Mel Jones, and Richard Burns in dress-up togs.

Judy Prochaska, Marilyn Willard, Barbara Thom, and Kathy Henderson.

Janet Jewett and Eunice Meyer pose in their finery. Snapped as they leave school on dress-up day are Esther Erickson, Marlene Meyer, Barbara Gageby, Larry Larsen, JoAnn McMahon, Wilma Gitchel, and Dorothy Dierks.

Lois Bisson, Marlene Meyer, and Jan Price.

The seniors had an organized skip day which took them to Gavins Point Dam and through the mental hospital in Yankton. Kathy Henderson and JoAnn McMahon are photographed as they look over the dam site.
Jim McGlone looking very much like a pretty girl seems to be entertaining the group. That's Lynnwood Hager and Doug Van Wyhe in the background.

Juniors TURN to Oriental THEME

DeAnn Ellingson places pencils on the banquet programs while Marlys Eng places wax in the candle holders. This work was necessary before the theme, "Oriental Gardens," could be completed for the banquet.

Kay Keck, Dottie Schult, Kathy Collins, and Beverly Besseler added to the oriental beauty of the banquet. Superintendent Vandel Johnson poses.

A STEP Closer to Success

Judy Prochaska, salutatorian; Wilma Gitchel, valedictorian.

School-day BREAKS with the Boys

Only three came from this car. They are Walter Paulsen, Lloyd Erickson, and Ronald Estergaard. The usual load is seven or more.

Connie Schliinz, Roger Dougherty, Lawrence Hill, and Marvin Johnson move up the steps toward the lower study hall. It was the lunch room for them.

The morning bell rings rather early but Keith Amundson, Lynnwood Hager, with the Stimson boys, Howard and Kenneth, find that there is plenty of time before the tardy bell.

Bruce Driscoll steals the show as the photographer aims for a picture of Jerry Johnson and Tony Kucera who are grooming their cherished locks too.

Bob Erickson, Lloyd Duncan, Howard Stimson, Howard Gitchel, and Roger (Buckwheat) Jewett, wait at the water fountain. It's the most popular place in the building.

At the end of a perfect day John Vanderhoof, Carter Wiese, and Ronnie Van Buren get ready to make a mad exit with the crowd.

Seniors present their FINALE

"Hey, kids, it's wonderful! All you have to do is say pull," says Annie Oakley (Pat Whalen) as she opposes "The swollen-headed stiff," Frank Butler, (Dick Thompson) in a shooting match. Jerome Neal, Lynnwood Hager, Ellen Pottebaum, Wilma Gitchel, Ken Stimson, and Jim McGlone watch on from the right side. Hotel guests and show people - Judy Prochaska, JoAnn McMahon, Marlene Meyers, Eunice Meyer, Diana Krogman, Lois Bisson, Marjorie Larson, and Janet Jewett - observe the match from the left.

At left: "Look it over keerful, Mister," says Annie as Lynnwood Hager prepares to buy a quail which she and her bird dog brother, Jake, (Jim McGlone) caught. The plucker and the packer, Wilma Gitchel and Lois Keehn stand by.

Kent Miller as Charlie Davenport threatens "If there's anybody left in St. Paul, you get fired!" He sends the show troupe - Douglas Van Wyhe, Jan Price, JoAnn McMahon, Eunice Meyer, Esther Erickson, Janice Leuning, Lois Bisson, Janet Jewett and Kenny Stimson - off to bring the crowd back from Pawnee Bill's Show. At right is Chinaman, Arlen Handberg. He was payment for a hotel bill.

". . .so hurry--hurry!" That is barker, Mel Jones, selling tickets for the great Wild West Show. He did the art work too. Eunice Meyer starts to enter the tent. Marlee Maxwell and escort, Darrell Cloud, are just getting their tickets. Believing that two makes it cozier, Roger Lamp escorts Barbara Russie and Dorothy Dierks. George Peper and Judy Prochaska follow next, and at their heels are Larry Larson and Edith Green. Finishing the line is Lois Bisson, Janet Jewett, and Jo-Ann McMahon.

"Annie Get Your Gun"

The production, under the direction of Gloria Hause, gave each member of the senior class a chance to perform before the flood lights.

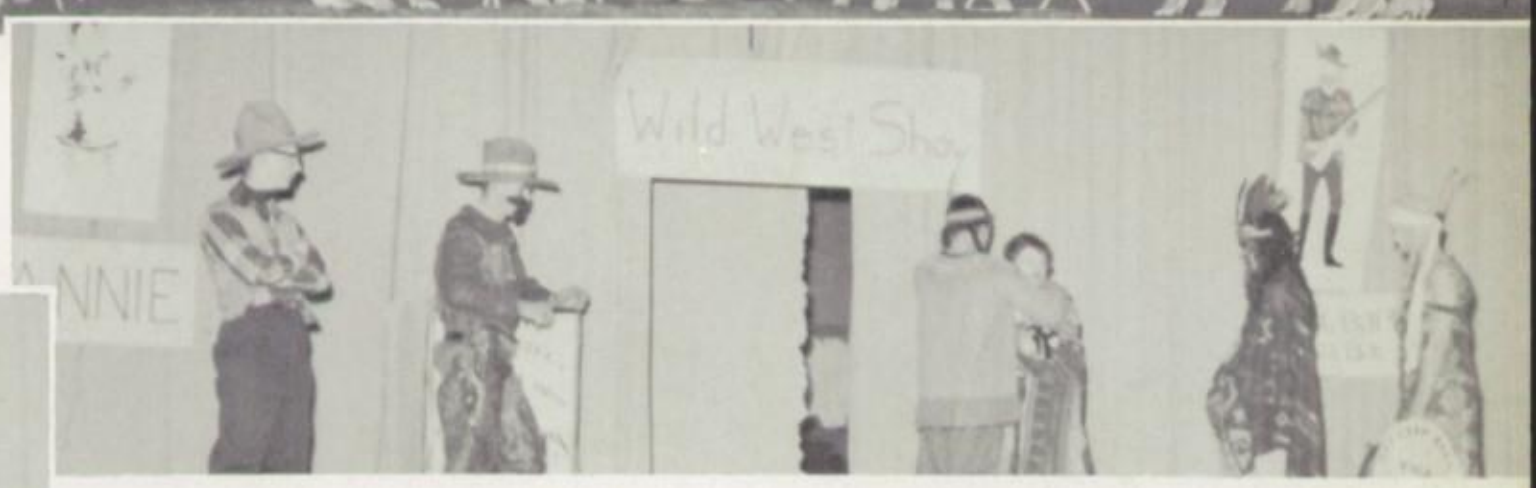
BELOW: Sitting Bull and Annie Oakley, Pat Keating and Pat Whalen, admit to the lawn party guests that they had "nuthin' for breakfast but a sea gull sandwich".



Sitting Bull seriously considers the situation - "Now, how I used to do this? No scalp in thirty years," as Ellen Pottebaum is held for the scalping by Kent Miller.

In the large picture Flandreau's Annie Oakley, Pat Whalen, almost collapses as Pat Keating places the teeth of many bears around her neck.

Kent Miller, Gene Gullickson as Buffalo Bill, Ken Stimson and Jerome Neal as Indians, appear to be interested.

"Oh, Frank, I love ye fer that! That's the nicest thing ye ever done!! But if'n ye hadn't done it, I'd a shot ye right in the belly button," were the words Pat Whalen spoke as she moved from Dick Thompson's arms.

Typical PART of the Girls' School-day

"Come on, gal, let's hurry this up a bit." Pat Willard helps Karen Schliinz remove her coat. Betty Grafing seems to lead this race.

The crowd isn't here, yet. Clustered around the band room steps are Margorie Larson, Barbara Gageby, Janice Leuning, and JoAnn McMahon.

What! Isn't there a traffic Jam? This is one of the few times that Judy Weigel, Frances Smallfield, and Florence Waxdahl were able to remove their books from their booklockers without an elbow fight.

The most crowded area of the building, and one which all girls use during the day is the mirror. Pat Willard, Donna Westra, Donna Kittleson, and Jean Van Houten take time out to beautify themselves.

JoAnn Blanchard, Evelyn Nissen, Marilyn Bothel, and Judy Kroeger prove that the library is a place to study.

No, they are not in any hurry to leave because they know that the best years of their life are those spent in school. Helen Crow, Jean Jewett, Sharon Grafing, and Judy Hurley do report that there is a little home work to be done.

Sack lunches are still an enjoyable part of the school-day. Esther Erickson, Janice Glaser, Rosemary Erickson, and Marlys Johnson relax together and enjoy lunch.

At right Leona Gehelson and Evelyn Nissen try to board the bus for home but Judy Schyler stands between coaxing for a few more minutes of time and talk.

Friends depart at the end of each school-day just as they separate at the end of a successful school-year. The seniors will go into their chosen fields, while the underclassmen plan to return in the fall to prepare for a happier future.

May this FLYER help each individual retain a vivid picture of the 1956-57 school year. An index of student and faculty names may be found on pages 50 and 51.
